NOTES OF THE TURF.

There are the usual spring—not personal—wails about betting losses from California. Riley Grannan is said to be $50,000 loser. Pittsburg Phil $35,000, Ed Purser—who should have been a big winner—$20,000 and Dave Gideon $15,000. All the wails are Eastern wails.

The gray gelding Pittsburg, by Springbok—Jennie V., by Waverly, is now being used as a buggy horse by Theodore Cook, to whom he was presented by R. Payne. Mr. Cook tried to educate the horse for a jumper, but finding him a failure, put him to harness.

Todd and Cass Sloan were in Chicago Saturday and Sunday. Todd is on his way East to ride for "Pittsburg Phil." Cass goes to Newport to ride for Mr. Leigh, who is at La Belle.

The St. Louis opening date is Saturday, May 15, not next Thursday as announced through an error made in the notice sent DAILY RACING FORM by the Fair Grounds Association.

B. J. Johnston is here from Hot Springs and in fairly good health. Big Jim Cushing, in scandalous fettle, is a present member of the Indiana colony.

It is related of a modern English coroner that he postponed an inquest to accommodate a juror who had an engagement to see the Lincolnshire Handicap run.

According to newspaper fables, Chicago will have at least thirty race tracks this season. But fables are fables, and race tracks costly possessions.

F. H. Hickok, a keen horseman, who brought Magnet west has signed C. Murphy, an ex-out-law jockey. Hickok also produced Jockey White.

The St. Louis Fair Grounds Association has chosen as its racing stewards for 1897: Rolla Wells, J. C. Ghio, Robert Aull and C. C. Maffit. El Toro has gone lame in his work at Lexington and will hardly cut a figure in early races.
